

The National Hotel Lunch & Historic Tour

History & Hamburgers

Eat. Drink. Discover.

Take a historic tour of Frenchtown with Rick Epstein, the official borough historian, and then enjoy lunch at The National Hotel

---

Maximum 5 guests per tour
Call 908.996.3200 to reserve your spot now!

History & Hamburgers at The National Hotel

Frenchtown's official borough historian, Rick Epstein, will walk you around town and tell you about the Great Fire of 1878, why Annie Oakley slept at The National Hotel, Fred Sipes' silent movie theater, Frenchtown's secret societies, Senator Martin's alligators, & plenty more. The tour is barrier-free, covers about 0.7 of a mile, and takes a little less than two hours. Masks must be worn, and tours will be limited to five guests.

Tour Times

10 am: Walk through town with our local town Historian Rick

12 pm: Return to The National Hotel for lunch

Tour Dates

May 1, 2021

May 2, 2021

More dates to come

Lunch Menu

Drink

Non-Alcoholic Beverage/Coffee/Tea of your choice.

Main

(choice of one)

The National Burger with Maple Bacon & Cheese of your choice.

Turkey & Brie Panini

Egyptian Falafel Sandwich. (veg)

Dessert

Cheesecake with seasonal fruit

LUNCH & HISTORY TOUR AT THE NATIONAL HOTEL &
RICK EPSTEIN $40 + tax (Does not include Gratuity)

Call 908.996.3200 to make a reservation